Letter from the Commissioner

Dear Virginia Taxpayer:

Did you know that filing your tax return electronically is as "quick as a click?" Last year, over 36 percent of Virginia taxpayers filed their individual income tax returns electronically, using either commercial tax preparation software or the Virginia Department of Taxation's "individual iFile" service.

Individual iFile offers taxpayers a free, fast, accurate, and secure way to prepare and submit their Virginia individual income tax returns via the Internet. As one taxpayer said after using iFile: "I can't say enough about the Virginia Taxation Department's iFile. This site is fabulous and I would recommend it to anyone wanting to file his or her own taxes. I would have never thought that preparing state taxes myself would be so very fast and easy."

You too can use iFile. No training or instructions are necessary. To get started, visit us at www.tax.virginia.gov, and click on the iFile button. The individual iFile service guides you through the process, allowing you to complete and submit your return in just a few minutes, in most cases. You can reach us 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

Returns can also be submitted electronically using "e-file". E-file is a joint federal and state electronic filing program. You can e-file your return using commercial tax preparation software. Some commercial products are designed for Internet filing. Most tax preparers offer e-file as an alternative to filing paper returns. To learn more about e-file and electronic filing services offered by commercial tax preparation software companies, visit www.irs.gov.

I encourage you to visit our Web site at www.tax.virginia.gov. We offer a variety of services in addition to electronic filing. You can check the status of your refund, download forms, or e-mail us a secure message. The Virginia Department of Taxation protects your personal information with the latest security safeguards, regardless of the electronic filing method used.

We look forward to serving you and welcome your suggestions. Please phone, write, or e-mail your questions, comments, and suggestions using the contact information located on the first page of this booklet.

Sincerely,

Kenneth W. Thorson
Tax Commissioner

WHAT'S NEW

Age Deduction: Beginning in 2004, taxpayers born on or after January 2, 1939, may claim an Age 65 and Older "income-based" age deduction. The income-based age deduction is limited based on the taxpayer's federal adjusted gross income, modified for any fixed date conformity adjustments, minus Social Security and Tier 1 Railroad benefits. For taxpayers born on or before January 1, 1939, the Age 65 and Older age deduction is not income based. In addition, the Under Age 65 age deduction will be phased out by taxable year 2006. Only taxpayers born on or between January 2, 1940 and January 1, 1942, may claim the Under Age 65 age deduction for 2004. See page 8 for additional information.

Voluntary Contributions: For 2004, there are 4 new voluntary contributions: The Virginia Commission for the Arts, The Virginia Federation of Humane Societies, The Tuition Assistance Grant Fund, and The Spay and Neuter Fund. In addition, new Public School Foundations are eligible to receive voluntary contributions. See page 24 for additional information.

Neighborhood Assistance Act Credit: Certain healthcare professionals licensed pursuant to Title 54.1 who provide health care services within the scope of their licensure, without charge, to patients of certain free and not-for-profit clinics, are now eligible for the income tax credit under the Neighborhood Assistance Act, regardless of where the services are delivered. To claim the credit, approval from the Department of Social Services is required, and the approval certificate must be attached to your return. For additional information, call 804-726-7923 or 804-726-7924.

Consumer's Use Tax: The Consumer's Use Tax for nonfood purchases increased from 4 ½ percent to 5% effective September 1, 2004. See page 23 for additional information.

Conformity with the Internal Revenue Code: Virginia's date of conformity with the Internal Revenue Code was advanced from December 31, 2002, to December 31, 2003. The special 30% and 50% bonus depreciation allowance for certain assets under the IRC and the 5-year net operating loss (NOL) carry back allowed for net operating losses generated in taxable year 2001 or 2002 are still not allowed. At the time these instructions went to print, the only required adjustments for "fixed date conformity" were the 2 mentioned above. However, as federal legislation has been enacted that results in changes to the Internal Revenue Code for the 2004 taxable year, taxpayers will be required to make adjustments to their Virginia returns that are not described in the instruction booklet. Supplemental instructions will be posted on our web site at www.tax.virginia.gov. See page 16 for additional information.

Tax Preparers: Beginning January 1, 2005, tax preparers who prepared 200 or more taxable year 2003 Virginia individual income tax returns for compensation are required to file all acceptable taxable year 2004 and beyond Virginia individual income tax returns using electronic medium or software that produces 2D barcodes. For taxable year 2004, the threshold drops to 100 or more returns. See page 16 for additional information.

Coming for 2005: Legislation passed in 2004 includes changes for taxable year 2005. Although the changes for 2005 do not affect the preparation of your 2004 Virginia individual income tax return, the changes will lower the amount of Virginia withholding tax deducted by employers from wages beginning January 1, 2005. The 2005 changes include an increase in the personal exemption, an increase in the filing thresholds, and an increase in the standard deduction for married taxpayers filing joint to $6,000 ($3,000 for married filing separately).

Do You Need to File a Virginia Income Tax Return?

Complete Form 760, lines 1 through 9, to determine your Virginia adjusted gross income (VAGI). You must file if you are:

Single and your VAGI is $5,000 or more

Married filing jointly and combined VAGI is $8,000 or more

Married filing separately and your VAGI is $4,000 or more

If you are not required to file, but you had Virginia income tax withheld, you are entitled to a refund of the amount withheld. You must file a return to receive a refund.

When to File Your Return

- Calendar year filer - If your tax year is January 1, 2004 - December 31, 2004, your individual income tax return must be postmarked no later than May 2, 2005, to avoid late filing penalties and interest.
- Fiscal year filer - If your tax year is any consecutive 12 month period other than January - December, your return must be postmarked by the 15th day of the fourth month following the end of your fiscal year. When filing, you should write "Fiscal Year Filer" across the top of page 1 of Form 760 and attach a statement indicating the beginning and ending months of your 12-month fiscal year.
- Outside U.S. - If you are living or traveling outside the United States and Puerto Rico (including serving in the military), the due date of your return is July 1, 2005. Fill in the overseas oval near the bottom of page 2 of Virginia Form 760.
- Weekends and holidays - If the due date falls on a Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday, your return must be postmarked by the next business day.

Extensions: If you cannot file your return by the due date, you should file an extension, Virginia Form 760E, and pay the tentative tax due by the due date of your original return. You may not substitute a copy of your federal extension form because Virginia Form 760E serves as your payment voucher for the tentative tax. Filing for an extension does not grant you extra time to pay your tax. You can file your extension and pay the tentative tax on our web site at www.tax.virginia.gov. See page 23 for information on extension penalties and interest.

If you are certain you are due a refund, you do not need to file an extension. There is no penalty for filing a late refund return, but you must file within three years from the original due date in order to claim your refund.

Where to File

If you are filing a paper return, assemble your return and attachments according to the diagram on page 5. For computer-generated returns, your completed Schedule INC/CG replaces the requirement for copies of W-2s. Refer to the back cover of this booklet for mailing instructions.

Residency Status and Choosing the Right Form to File

- There are two types of Virginia residents: “domiciliary” and “actual”.
- A domiciliary resident of another state may also be an actual resident of Virginia.
- A Virginia residency may be either full year or part-year.
- A nonresident of Virginia may be required to file a Virginia return.

To determine which Virginia return you should file, first determine if you were a resident of Virginia at any time during the taxable year:

Step 1: Determine your residency status

Domiciliary Resident

You are a domiciliary (legal) resident if your permanent home is Virginia. Your permanent home is where, whenever you are absent, you intend to return. Every person has one and only one domiciliary residence at a time. Most domiciliary residents actually live in Virginia; however actual presence in the state is not required. If you have established legal domicile in Virginia, you are a domiciliary resident until you establish legal domicile in another state.

- Members of the armed forces who have Virginia as their home of record are domiciliary residents, even if stationed outside of Virginia.
- A domiciliary resident who accepts employment outside of Virginia but who does not abandon Virginia as his or her domiciliary residence, even if outside of Virginia for many years, is a domiciliary resident of Virginia. This includes domiciliary residents who accept employment outside of the United States.

Actual Resident

You are an actual resident if:

1. You maintained an abode in Virginia for more than 183 consecutive or total days of the taxable year;

AND

2. You are a domiciliary (legal) resident of another state or country.

If you are an actual resident of Virginia, you may be required to file as a resident in Virginia and in your domiciliary state. If you are in this situation, you may be able to claim a credit on the return filed in the state of your legal domicile.

Students: The rules for determining the residency status of a student are the same as for anyone else.

Military Personnel and members of the U.S. Congress: If you are a member of the armed forces or of the U.S. Congress who is a domiciliary (legal) resident of another state, you are not subject to taxation as an actual resident of Virginia even if you maintained an abode in Virginia for more than 183 days. However, if you have income from Virginia sources other than your active duty or congressional pay, you may be required to file a Form 763, Nonresident return.

Spouses, Dependents and Congressional Staff Members: The exemption for members of the armed forces and the U.S. Congress does not apply to spouses, dependents or congressional staff members. If you are a spouse or dependent of a member of the armed forces or of the U.S. Congress or you are employed by a member of the U. S. Congress, you must determine your own residency status and filing obligations, even if you filed a joint federal return.

Step 2: Determine which income tax return you should file

Virginia Residents

File Form 760, Resident Return, if:

- You were an actual or domiciliary resident for the entire year; or
- You were an actual or domiciliary resident for a portion of the year, but all of your income for the entire year was from Virginia sources.

File Form 760PY, Part-Year Resident Return, if:

- You moved into Virginia during the taxable year and became either an actual or domiciliary resident; or
- You moved out of Virginia during the taxable year and became a domiciliary resident of another state, provided you did not move back to Virginia within 6 months.

Note to Part-Year Residents: If you had Virginia source income during the taxable year while you were a nonresident, you may also be required to file Form 763, Nonresident return. See Nonresidents below.

Married Taxpayers: If one spouse is a nonresident, you may not file a joint Virginia return, even if you filed a joint federal return. The resident spouse will file either Form 760 or Form 760PY, while the nonresident spouse will file Form 763, if applicable. However, if one spouse is a full-year resident and the other spouse is a part-year resident, you may file a joint return using Form 760PY. See the 760PY instructions for information.

Nonresidents

File the Form 763, Nonresident Return, if:

You had income from Virginia sources, other than interest from personal savings accounts, interest or dividends from an individual stock market investment, or pension payments from a Virginia payor.

Income from Virginia sources includes:

1. Items of income gain, loss and deductions attributable to: a) The ownership of any interest in real or tangible personal property in Virginia; b) A business trade, profession, or occupation carried on in Virginia; and c) Prizes paid by the Virginia Lottery Department, and gambling winnings from wagers placed or paid at a location in Virginia.
2. Income from intangible personal property, including annuities, dividends, interest, royalties and gains from the disposition of intangible personal property employed by an individual in a business, trade, profession or occupation carried on in this state.

In this situation, if you were a Virginia resident for part of the year and you also received Virginia source income during your period of residence, you must file Form 760PY and Form 763. The Virginia source income reported on Form 763 will be the only Virginia source income you received while a nonresident.

Exceptions for Certain Nonresidents

Kentucky and the District of Columbia: If you are a resident of Kentucky or the District of Columbia who commutes daily to work in Virginia, you are not required to file a Form 763 Nonresident return, provided that 1) you had no actual place of abode in Virginia at any time during the taxable year and 2) your only income from Virginia sources is salaries and wages and 3) your salary and wages are subject to income taxation by Kentucky or the District of Columbia.

Maryland, Pennsylvania, and West Virginia: If you are a resident of Maryland, Pennsylvania, or West Virginia and you earn salaries and wages in Virginia, you do not have to file a Form 763, Nonresident return, provided that 1) your only income from Virginia sources is salaries and wages and 2) you were present in Virginia for 183 days or less and 3) your salaries and wages are subject to taxation by Maryland, Pennsylvania, or West Virginia.

The exception for certain nonresidents of Kentucky, the District of Columbia, Maryland, Pennsylvania, and West Virginia applies only to salaries and wages. For Virginia source income not specifically exempted, you must file the Form 763, Nonresident return.

Reminder: Keep copies of your completed Form 760 and all supporting documentation for three years.

Getting Started

Do You Need to Complete Virginia Schedule ADJ?

Complete Virginia Schedule ADJ if you need to report any of the following:

- Subtractions from FAGI not reported on Form 760
- Credit for Low Income Individuals
- Credit for Tax Paid to Another State
- Addition to tax
- Penalties and Interest
- Consumer's Use Tax

- Amended Returns

Assembling Your Return

ATTACHMENTS TO FORM 760

- W-2s & 1099s
- Schedule ADJ
- Schedule OSC
- Schedule CR
- 760C or 760F
- VA Credit Schedules
- Other VA Statements or Schedules

Enclose the original Virginia Form 760, Schedule ADJ, Schedule OSC and Schedule CR. Do not send photocopies of these forms. Photocopies of all supporting documents are acceptable.

Amended Returns

Complete Virginia Form 760 through line 24. You will need to complete lines 27 through 32 on Virginia Schedule ADJ to determine if you are due a refund or if any additional tax due should be submitted with your amended return. Remember to fill in the oval located on the front of Form 760, indicating that this is an amended return. Also, fill in the oval on the front of the return if the amended return is the result of a net operating loss (NOL).

PRIVACY ACT

In compliance with the Privacy Act of 1974, disclosure of your social security number is mandatory under the authority of Section 58.1-209 of the Code of Virginia. Your Social Security number is used both as a means of identifying your income tax return and also of verifying the identity of individuals for income tax refund purposes.

Instructions for Form 760

Name and Address

Enter your name and mailing address in the space provided. If you are married filing separate returns (Filing Status 3), DO NOT enter your spouse's name in the spouse name field. Instead enter your spouse's name in the space below the filing status 3 line.

If one filer on the return is deceased, only the surviving spouse's name should appear in the name fields on the front of Virginia Form 760. The surviving spouse should enter his or her social security number in the "Your Social Security Number" field. Enter the social security number for the deceased spouse in the "Spouse's Social Security Number" field. This will ensure that any refund is properly issued to the surviving spouse. Be sure to fill in the oval on the back of the form for deceased spouse.

Ovals - Fill in any ovals that apply to you.

- Name or filing status has changed since last filing.
- Address has changed since last filing.
- Virginia return was not filed last year.
- Accelerated refund requested.
- Return adjusted for fixed date conformity - fill in the oval if the return has an addition, subtraction or an adjustment to itemized deductions due to fixed date conformity.
- Dependent on another's return - See page 10.
- Amended return - See page 25 for details.

Fiscal year filers: Your return must be postmarked by the 15th day of the fourth month following the end of your fiscal year. When filing, you should write "Fiscal Year Filer" across the top of page 1 of Form 760 and attach a statement indicating the beginning and ending months of your 12-month fiscal year.

Social Security Number

Enter your social security number and the first four letters of your last name in the boxes. If using Filing Status 2, you must also enter the social security number and first four letters of the last name of your spouse. For filing status 3, enter your spouse's social security number and record their name on the line under the filing status 3 oval.

Locality Code: Please take the time to properly identify the city or county where you live. Local school funding is allocated based in part on this information. Look up the three-digit code on the inside back cover for the locality in which you lived on January 1, 2005. Enter the corresponding number in the boxes provided on the form.

Deceased taxpayer - If a refund is due, and the return filed is not a joint return with the surviving spouse, a copy of federal Form 1310 or the appropriate court appointment papers must be included with the return so that the refund may be issued in the name of the personal representative.

Filing Status

In most cases, your filing status will be the same as the one you selected on your federal return. Fill in the oval next to the appropriate filing status. Make sure to fill in the Head of Household oval if you checked the Head of Household box on your federal return.

Even if you and your spouse filed a joint federal return, if you are a resident and your spouse is a nonresident, you may not file a joint Virginia return. The resident must file Form 760 using Filing Status 3. In this case, each of you must determine income, exemptions, and deductions as if you had filed separate federal returns. If the number of dependent exemptions or the amount of itemized deductions cannot be accounted for separately, they must be proportionately allocated between each spouse based on each spouse's income.

If one spouse is a resident and the other is a part-year resident, you may file together on Form 760PY. See page 3 for more information.

Exemptions

Enter the number of exemptions you are allowed in each box. If you are not entitled to a particular exemption, do not enter a zero; leave the box blank. The first exemption box has been completed for you. If you are filing a joint return, also complete the boxes that pertain to your spouse.

- 65+ Enter a "1" if you were 65 or older on January 1, 2005.
- Blind Enter a "1" if you are considered blind for federal income tax purposes.
- Dependents Enter the number of dependents you are claiming on your Virginia Income Tax return.

Generally, you may claim the same number of dependent exemptions allowed on your Federal return. Please remember that the same dependent cannot be claimed on more than one Virginia return.

You cannot claim the 65+ or Blind exemptions if you also claim a credit for Low Income Individuals on line 21 of Form 760.

Note for Filing Status 3. Each spouse must determine exemptions as if he or she had filed separate federal returns, using federal rules for separate reporting. If the number of dependent exemptions cannot be accounted for separately, they must be proportionately allocated between each spouse based on each spouse's income. One spouse may never claim less than a whole personal exemption.

Add the numbers entered in all of the exemption boxes, and enter the total in the box provided. Use the total number of exemptions when completing line 11.

Line Instructions

Line 1 Federal Adjusted Gross Income Enter the federal adjusted gross income from your federal return. If married filing separately (Filing Status 3), enter only the amount of income attributable to you. Be sure to use the federal adjusted gross income amount, NOT federal taxable income.

Line 2 Additions If you reported any additions on Virginia Schedule ADJ, enter the total amount from line 3 on Schedule ADJ.

Line 3 Add lines 1 and 2 and enter the total.

Line 4 Instructions - Age Deduction

Are you eligible to claim an age deduction?

For 2004, taxpayers born on or before January 1, 1942, may qualify to claim an age deduction based on birth date, filing status and income. A taxpayer who qualifies to claim an age deduction may NOT also claim either of the following:

Disability Subtraction: If you qualify to claim an age deduction, you may not also claim a disability subtraction. For married taxpayers, each spouse, if eligible, may claim either an age deduction or a disability subtraction. You should claim the deduction or subtraction that gives you the greatest tax benefit.

Credit for Low Income Individuals: You may not claim both an age deduction and a credit for low income. For married taxpayers filing separate returns, if one spouse claimed a credit for low income, neither spouse can claim an age deduction.

If you, or your spouse if you are married, are not claiming a disability subtraction or a credit for low income and your birth date is on or before January 1, 1942, please read the information below to determine if you qualify for an age deduction and how to determine the amount of the age deduction you may claim for 2004.

I. Taxpayers Under Age 65

If you were born on or between January 2, 1940, and January 1, 1942, you may claim an age deduction of $6,000 for 2004. For married taxpayers, each spouse's age deduction is based on that spouse's birth date. The age deduction for filers under age 65 will be phased out by taxable year 2006. Taxpayers born after January 1, 1942, will not be eligible to claim an age deduction until the tax year in which age 65 is obtained.

II. Taxpayers Age 65 and Older

If you, or your spouse if you are married, were born on or before January 1, 1940, you may qualify to claim an age deduction of up to $12,000 each for 2004. The age deduction you may claim will depend upon your birth date, filing status, and income.

If your birth date is:

- On or before January 1, 1939: Your age deduction is not income-based. You may claim an age deduction of $12,000. If you are married, each spouse born on or before January 1, 1939, may claim a $12,000 age deduction. For a spouse born after January 1, 1939, the age deduction for that spouse is based on the criteria below.
- On or between January 2, 1939, and January 1, 1940: Your age deduction is based on your income. A taxpayer's income, for purposes of determining an income-based age deduction is the taxpayer's adjusted federal adjusted gross income or "AFAGI". A taxpayer's AFAGI is the taxpayer's federal adjusted gross income, modified for any fixed date conformity adjustments, minus Social Security and Tier 1 Railroad benefits.
  - For Filing Status 1, Single taxpayer, the maximum allowable age deduction of $12,000 is reduced $1 for every $1 the taxpayer's AFAGI exceeds $50,000.
  - For All Married Taxpayers, whether filing jointly or separately, the maximum allowable age deduction of $12,000 each is reduced $1 for every $1 the married taxpayers' joint AFAGI exceeds $75,000.

To compute your income-based age deduction, use the Age 65 and Older Age Deduction worksheet on the next page.

Notice to All Married Taxpayers: A married taxpayer's income-based age deduction is always determined using the married taxpayers' joint AFAGI. Regardless of whether you are filing jointly or separately, if you are married, your income-based age deduction is determined using both your and your spouse's income. In addition, if both spouses are claiming an income-based age deduction, regardless of whether filing jointly or separately, the married taxpayers must compute a joint age deduction first and then the joint age deduction is allocated to each taxpayer.

Age 65 and Older Age Deduction Worksheet

FOR 2004: Only taxpayers born on or between January 2, 1939, and January 1, 1940, may claim an income-based age deduction for 2004. ## Line Instructions - Virginia Form 760

You can calculate your Spouse Tax Adjustment (STA) on-line at the TAX web site, www.tax.virginia.gov.

To claim a Spouse Tax Adjustment, both taxpayers on the joint return must have income.

To speed processing, be sure to enter the Virginia Adjusted Gross Income for each spouse on lines 16a & 16b.

Line 11 Exemptions Multiply the total number of exemptions claimed in the exemptions section by $800. Enter this amount on line 11.

Line 12 Child and Dependent Care Deduction You may claim this deduction on your Virginia return only if you were eligible to claim a credit for child and dependent care expenses on your federal return. Enter the amount on which the Federal credit for child and dependent care is based. (This is the amount on Federal Form 2441 or Schedule 2 of Form 1040A that is multiplied by the decimal amount - up to $3,000 for one dependent and $6,000 for 2 or more). DO NOT ENTER THE FEDERAL CREDIT AMOUNT.

Line 13 Add lines 10, 11, and 12 and enter the total.

Line 14 Virginia Taxable Income Subtract line 13 from line 9.

Line 15 Amount of Tax To compute your tax, you can use either the tax table or the tax rate schedule on page 29 or use the Tax Calculator on our web site at: www.tax.state.va.us.

Line 16 Spouse Tax Adjustment (STA) Couples filing jointly under Filing Status 2 may reduce their tax by up to $259 with the STA if both have taxable income to report and their joint taxable income on line 14 is more than $3,000. Using the STA, couples filing joint returns will not pay higher taxes than if they had filed separate returns. To complete the Spouse Tax Adjustment Worksheet:

- Recompute your Federal Adjusted Gross Income (FAGI) as if you and your spouse filed separate federal returns. A worksheet is provided on the next page to help in computing separate FAGI.
- Use the recomputed FAGI to compute the Virginia Adjusted Gross Income (VAGI) for each spouse.
- Use the separate VAGI on line 1 of the Spouse Tax Adjustment Worksheet.

HOW IT WORKS: Virginia tax rates increase with income: 2% up to $3,000; 3% from $3,001 to $5,000; 5% from $5,001 to $17,000 and 5.75% for income over $17,000. The STA lets both incomes reported on jointly filed returns benefit from the lower tax rates.

EXAMPLE: The Smiths have combined Virginia taxable income of $42,000. Mr. Smith's income is $30,000 and Mrs. Smith's income is $12,000. Without the STA, their Virginia tax is $2,157. With the STA, both incomes benefit from the lower tax rates. Using the STA Calculator at www.tax.virginia.gov, the Smiths compute an STA of $214, reducing their taxes to $1,943. If you cannot access the TAX web site, use the following worksheet to calculate your STA. You will need your federal tax return and, if applicable, a completed Virginia Schedule ADJ.

Enter your STA amount on Line 16 of Form 760. You must also enter the Virginia Adjusted Gross Income (VAGI) for each spouse on Lines 16a and 16b.

TAX RATE SCHEDULE

IF YOUR VIRGINIA TAXABLE INCOME IS:

Not over $3,000, your tax is 2% of your Virginia taxable income.

over—	but not over—	your tax is—	of excess over—
$ 3,000	$ 5,000	$ 60 + 3 %	$ 3,000
$ 5,000	$17,000	$ 120 + 5 %	$ 5,000
$17,000		$ 720 + 5.75 %	$17,000

Example

If your taxable income is $90,000, your tax is $720 + 5.75% of the amount over $17,000.
This equals $720 + (.0575 x $73,000) = $720 + $4,197.50 = $4,917.50 which should be rounded to $4,918.
